PACIFIC FLEET BASE AT S. F.

Submarine Headquarters to be in San Diego

San Diego.—Official confirmation of the report that the entire battle ship fleet will be moved from San Pedro to San Francisco early this summer and transfer of the submarine base from San Pedro to San Diego on July 1, was contained in telegraphic advices received here by naval authorities from Secretary of the Navy Denby.

In one telegram the Secretary declared that the report of Admiral Rodman, in which the latter advocated the creation of a great naval base at Alameda and transfer of the submarine base activities to San Diego had received the irrevocable support of the general board of the Navy, the Navy Department and the Secretary.

Approximately $2,500,000 will be expended at San Diego in the establishment of a permanent submarine base. This is one-fifth the sum that would be required to dredge and construct a permanent base at San Pedro and bears out the statement of Secretary Denby to Los Angeles civic organizations that the transfer is being made in the interest of efficiency and economy.

According to local naval authorities, San Francisco and San Diego are to be the only two great naval operating bases on the Pacific Coast after July 1. At San Diego will be centralized the destroyer, aircraft and submarine forces, and at San Francisco battle ships and vessels of the train.

Retain Maneuver Grounds
All battle maneuvers will take place as heretofore in an area between the Coronado Islands and the Santa Barbara Islands. It will take the battle ships about thirty hours to steam from their new base at San Francisco to the southern drill grounds.

YOUTHS CONFESS TO MURDER

Body of Assurance Agent Found Buried in Mojave Sands

Riverside.—Robbed and murdered in the Mojave desert, and buried in the sands, the body of Leslie L. Nichols, 31 years old, of San Francisco, an adjuster of automobile losses employed by the Northern Assurance Company's San Francisco office, lies in an undertaking establishment in El Centro, according to dispatches.

Frank Campbell and Charles Bates, both 18 years old, are in jail at El Centro, charged with the murder of Nichols 45 miles southeast of Mecca, Calif. They are said to have confessed. Nichols was said to have been slain after he had offered to let the youths ride in his automobile with him. They were alleged to have shot him, and then when he struggled to get a revolver out of the pocket in the door of his automobile, to have beaten him to death with rocks.

Campbell, according to the dispatch, was recently discharged from a United States destroyer at San Diego, and Davis is said to have lived until recently at Section, Ala. They were arrested several days ago at El Centro on charges of stealing an automobile.

Brought to the Riverside county jail, they were said to have been overheard by a turnkey, as they discussed the slaying of Nichols, to which they confessed when asked about it, officers said.

CONSOLIDATE STATE BOARDS

Centralized Department of Professional Standards is Economy Plan.

Sacramento.—Nine state boards dealing with the regulating of practice in some of the principal professions are abolished and their duties consolidated in a centralized "department of professional standards," in the latest of the administration's economy bills introduced by Assemblyman Elmer P. Bromley of Los Angeles.

The present state boards which lose their identity under the act are:

State Board of Accountancy, office at San Francisco.

State Board of Architecture, with divisional offices in San Francisco and in Los Angeles.

State Board of Dental Examiners, office at San Francisco.

State Board of Embalmers, office at Oakland.

State Board of Library Examiners, office at the Capitol.

State Board of Medical Examiners, office at Sacramento.

State Board of Optometry, office in Fresno.

State Board of Pharmacy, San Francisco.

State Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine, of which E. J. Craelly of San Francisco is president.

Administration of the new Department of Professional Standards is vested in a director, to be appointed by the Governor, and to serve at his pleasure. The salary of the director is fixed at $4,000. It is specified that he shall not be a practitioner of any of the professions coming under his jurisdiction.

MISS KATHLENE MARTYN

Miss Kathlene Martyn, stage favorite and beauty, will be the first of her sex to attempt a flight, with a pilot, across the Atlantic ocean. Miss Martyn, who is the mascot of the Royal British Flying corps, has flown in every type of aircraft.

GERMANS FIRE ON FRENCH TROOPS

Ruhr is Isolated from the Rest of Germany

Dusseldorf.—French infantry have now taken up all the positions in the ring of steel forged to cut off the Ruhr from the rest of Germany. From now on ingress and exit will be permitted or barred at the will of the French high command.

France, having obtained from the reparations commission a declaration of the general default of Germany under the Versailles treaty, will address to the Berlin government an ultimatum that she expects payment of the $125,000,000 due this week, giving three days' grace.

If this is disregarded, further means for collection will be decided by the cabinet at Paris.

London.—A state of siege exists at Aix-la-Chapelle, where potshots are being taken at night at the French and Belgian sentries, according to dispatches to all the newspapers here.

Martial law is in force throughout practically all the Rhineland and Ruhr.

French armed forces have seized the posts and telegraphs, and there are ominous rumors on every tongue that the mysterious mobilization which is going on has been completed here will be armed clashes in many sections of the occupied territory.

The railway traffic on the whole northern line of the Ruhr is at a complete standstill.

RISONER FLEES HOSPITAL

aws Through Leg Irons and Disappears.

Los Angeles.—Sawing through leg irons which chained him to a cot, William Hollingsworth, motor bandit, who was shot in a gun battle in San Francisco with Police Sergeant Joseph Ignola, escaped from the Los Angeles County Hospital, according to advices received by the police here.

Following the battle with the San Francisco policeman, Hollingsworth was driven in an automobile to Los Angeles by his wife, and applied at the county hospital there the next day for treatment, stating that he had been shot by a holdup man.

When his identity was discovered, although shot through the head and considered in a precarious condition, leg irons were placed on him to prevent his escape.

Subsequently, while his nurse was absent for a few minutes, he disappeared. An investigation indicated that he had been sawing at the leg irons for hours, concealing the work with the bed covers.

Hollingsworth is one of three motor bandits believed to be implicated in more than forty robberies in San Francisco and the killing of Jules Benvenuto in a soft drink parlor at 701 Octavia street on January 13.

SPECIAL COINAGE BILL

Washington.—Coinage of 300,000 special 50-cent pieces, commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the enunciation of the Monroe Doctrine, is authorized in a Senate bill passed by the House. The coins will be issued on request of the clearing house of Los Angeles in connection with an exposition there next summer.

A large lime products company, whose offices and plant are located four miles east of Woodlake and two miles north of Lemon Cove, which began business in the spring of 1917 with a capacity of 20,000 annual tons of ground limestone and in 1918 increased to 30,000 tons, has just completed installation of machinery and buildings to increase the capacity to 60,000 tons per year.

While scores of commuters at the Martinez Southern Pacific station looked on, Joe Martin, a laborer, shot and probably fatally wounded his wife, Mary Martin, fired two shots at City Marshal C. H. Palmer and sent a bullet into his own throat, causing instant death. The shooting was the climax of a violent attack by Martin on his wife, during which he dragged the screaming woman several blocks down the street by her hair.

I. C. SUPPER WAS GRATIFYING SUCCESS

The first event to be held in the Congregational church since the remodeling began last fall was the Improvement Club supper Friday night.

The auditorium was not completed, nor the walls in the social rooms tinted, but the latter were nearly enough completed to furnish very satisfactory accommodations.

Supper was entirely ready a few minutes before 6:30 o'clock when the lights on the south side of the building went out. The ladies had secured lamps and were about to announce supper when Mr. Genasci arrived with new fuses and the supper was served.

Japanese quince, the first and by many considered the most attractive of the spring blossoms, was artistically placed in baskets alternating the lengths of the tables with baskets of nuts and apples. Sprays of a shrub bearing red berries, served as favors at each place.

Rev. W. E. Eckles asked the blessing and then the gustatory part of the program was begun. An appetizing three course chicken dinner was expeditiously served, the Christian Endeavorers acting as waiters.

Beautiful musical numbers were played by Professors Halamick and Kalas, and Miss Bozena Kalas, which were enthusiastically encored.

The president, Mr. E. R. Kennedy, introduced Rev. Frank Linder of San Jose who had chosen for his subject "Principles of Progress." It proved to be an exceedingly interesting talk as handled by Mr. Linder, who showed that all progress is based upon co-operation, faith and love. He called attention to some of the ancient republics which existed for many centuries but eventually failed because they were not based upon those principles. He made application of the same thought to community progress as well.

After the program closed very complimentary remarks were made by many of those present.

Mrs. McClintock, of San Jose, spoke briefly of the work of the Law and Order League of the county, and the work before it, and asking financial aid with which to accomplish enforcement of the Wright Act.

Ex-president S. N. Hedegard gave a brief resume of the chief accomplishments of the Club during the past year—among which were the securing of the pavement of Campbell Avenue, which will begin ere long; the placing of the Campbell sign near the intersection of Campbell and Johnson Avenues and the payment of $100 to the Campbell Library Fund.

The new library was the theme of a short talk by Mrs. Ralston Alison, chairman of the finance committee, in which she reported the progress made in solicitation of funds. She called attention to the fact that some of the San Jose merchants had met the committee very graciously and contributed to the fund. Later these subscribers will be published, as have the others, and the committee urges that Campbell patrons favor these stores when shopping in San Jose.

Mr. Kennedy added a few brief remarks urging membership in the Improvement Club and attendance upon its meetings which occur regularly on the first Thursday of each month.

H. AND S. CLUB TO MEET

The Home and School Club will meet Tuesday at the usual hour, but the place of meeting will be at the new building, in Room 11.

Now that all the grades will be in the one building, a special invitation is extended to all the mothers to come and see what the organization is trying to accomplish, and lend the help that numbers always create.

GRANGE HOLDS VERY INTERESTING SESSION

The stormy night of January 23 did not prevent a good attendance at the Grange. J. Knaak, of the Committee on Legislation, made a very good report bringing out many points of interest both in national and state affairs.

E. K. Clendenen said when a gasoline tax was first proposed he was opposed to it, but on further consideration had come to favor it, it being a tax that would reach every user of autos in direct proportion to the amount of use and none could escape it as it would be added to the price of gasoline. Now many are making great use of the roads and paying little or no tax at all.

Mr. Conk talked on the auto tax or registration fee, saying it took 250 people and cost $900,000 to collect that tax, and all they had to do was to sit in an office and receive the money. He advocated county collectors collecting the tax, also that license fees and tax should be paid when license plate is paid for. He also favored a gasoline tax, and the new water bill to be presented to the Legislature.

Mr. S. N. Hedegard hoped that some day we could all get together and store up the waters of the creeks now running to waste, for future use and that the time might soon be here when it would be absolutely necessary.

Stanley Smith proposed a committee for further experiment on brown rot, committee to be appointed.

Past Master Coupland talked on planting trees. Do not plant trees in the mud and stamp it down with the feet as this is a sure way to stunt the tree.

Mr. Shelley, of the Poultry Committee, read an interesting and instructive paper on breeding. Great importance is given to the cockerel—these have far more potency in transmitting valuable qualities than the hens.

Points to be considered in selecting the roosters are vigor, vitality, early maturity, and a parentage from heavy layers. Care along these lines in the last ten years has raised the average production of eggs from 80 to 120 eggs, each per year and there is still room for improvement. 200 egg hens are becoming quite common and no one should be satisfied with less than an average product of 150 per year. Keep daily records of your pens and know what they are doing.

The lecturer's hour opened with a piano solo by Mrs. Whitney, and a talk on brown rot of the apricot by County Commissioner Cooley. He advocates spraying with Bordeaux double strength or 8-8-150. First spray at the beginning of blossoms, or when the buds are in the pink, and a second spray a week or so later. This spray thoroughly applied has proven very effective in control of brown rot but the careful cutting out of all affected twigs was also recommended. Mr. Cooley's talk was followed by a lively discussion which showed much interest in the subject.

Lecturer's hour closed with pleasing solos by A. J. Peterson, "I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen" and "Love's Serenade."

DIED

George P. M. Dahl, a retired baker of San Francisco died at his residence on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road last Friday evening after a lingering illness of two years. He is survived by his wife Sara, and a sister, Mrs. Oscar Wolff, who lives in Los Gatos.

The funeral was held Monday at two o'clock from the Melvin Funeral Parlors in Los Gatos. Rev. H. H. Wintler of the Presbyterian church officiated. The interment took place in the Los Gatos Cemetery. The deceased was a native of San Francisco, but attended school in San Jose when a young man.

R. B. Hummel and family have moved from the Union district and are occupying one of the Alpha Apartments. Mrs. Hummel is one of the High School faculty.

CLASS OF NINE IS GRADUATED

The first graduation of the Campbell Union Grammar School under the half year system was held Wednesday afternoon when a class of nine pupils were given their diplomas, Joseph E. Hancock, County Superintendent of Schools, being the speaker.

Following the exercises the graduates were given a reception by the pupils of the low eighth.

The graduates were Mildred Berry, Shirley Davis, Oscar Downs, Azalia Lanz, Sidney McAbee, Gloria Mitchell, Cedric Peake, Clyde Preston and Frank Ruscigno.

At the close of school Thursday, the general exodus to the new building will begin and Friday will be "moving day." Things will be in readiness for the new term which begins Monday, Feb. 5, with all the grades under one roof.

All children six years of age or who will be six during February are entitled to enter and parents are urged to enroll them at once. Register them with the principal, E. J. Cuthbertson. It will be to the advantage of the children themselves to enter Monday.

The Flag Raising ceremonies will be held at 9:15 Monday, the 5th, at the new building and a general invitation is extended to witness the exercises.

Mr. Cuthbertson says that the Mercury Herald reporter caught them at rehearsal, which evidently was so well done that it was taken for the "bona fide" performance.

OLD SETTLERS' DAY

Initial steps have been taken for the celebration of Old Settlers' Day. President E. R. Kennedy of the Improvement Club, appointed some time past the committee on a speaker, naming C. H. Whitman, Rev. F. C. Farr and Rev. W. E. Eckles. Other committees were to be appointed at last night's meeting of the Club.

For the benefit of the many new residents in Campbell and vicinity, we would say that February 22nd has been observed for many years as a community get-together day, instituted by a few families in the earlier days of the village history.

For some years the arrangements have been in charge of the Improvement Club and a full day's program arranged including an indoor basket lunch at noon.

Recently there has been a tendency to break away from the picnic dinner, but those who still carry out the plan find that one of the pleasantest features of the day. Begin now to plan for the celebration and write to some of the old residents to visit Campbell on that occasion, and make it a real "Old Settlers' Day."

PITMAN-WADE

Benjamin L. Wade of Campbell and Lillie A. Pitman of Oakland were married in the latter city, Monday, Jan. 29. Mr. Wade has bought a home in Oakland and they will live there, although as yet he has not definitely settled upon business. He plans, however, to go into some business of his own.

For some time Mr. Wade has been employed in the Preston Garage, and made his home with his mother, Mrs. M. E. Wade.

"Ben" is a very genial, agreeable man and should make a success in a business of his own, and though regretting that there did not appear to be an opening here, we wish him prosperity in whatever he undertakes.

Mrs. Perry and daughter, Miss May, of Port Dover, Ontario, Canada, former residents of Campbell, are visiting friends in the community. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. S. D. Rodeck and Miss Mary entertained informally, in their honor, a company of their old time friends and neighbors.

A GOOD CAUSE

The Santa Clara Tuberculosis Society has received an appropriation of $1,000 to make a temporary house for a county preventorium habitable. The supervisors have also agreed to contribute $250 per month for maintenance, if a like amount is contributed from other sources.

Of course the amount received from the supervisors is not in any way adequate, but it is a good start, and with funds that others contribute, the association hopes to make a good beginning in this important work this year.

If the venture proves a success, as in all probability it will, the supervisors promise to be more liberal in their contributions.

There are now approximately fifty six cases of tubercular and undernourished children who have come under the observation of the association, and unless properly cared for, will either die or later become so impoverished in health, due to lack of proper treatment, that they, and probably their offspring will become a burden to society and in the end will cost the community and the county much more than is necessary to properly care for them now and restore them to health.

MONTEZUMA SHOWS NEW SPIRIT

At a very impressive meeting last Sunday morning, Professor Rogers, the President of Montezuma, declared the following week be known as "Good-fellowship Week."

Professor Rogers gave a most interesting talk, the subject being, "The Spirit of Montezuma." He told how Montezuma was founded, way back in 1909 with little money and a few fellows. He spoke of the spirit of a new vision that prompted the founding of Montezuma and took his interested listeners up the road of years to what Montezuma means today.

In his talk, Professor Rogers made a personal appeal to the fellows to put all personal prejudices aside and look for the good in all.

He said, "Look for the good in all the fellows about you. Of course, if you want to find the bad you can, but it is the good that concerns us all. Always remember what Abdu Bahl said, 'If you are with a person with nine good points and one bad one, see the nine good points. If you are with a person with nine bad points and one good one, see the good one.'"

The majority of Montezuma students have observed Professor Rogers' appeal for a better understanding of their classmates and the result has been week of better living for all.

This is the second week of this kind held at Montezuma. The week before last was known as "No Excuse Week." It was heralded by a lecture on "Excuses and the Weakened Will" by Professor Rogers. This week, no one offered excuses for any act whatsoever. It was as big a success as "Good Fellowship Week."

A new mode of living is slowly being introduced to Montezuma. It is an advanced manner of clean thinking that is attracting the worldwide attention of thinking people.

$30,000 FIRE AT ANGELS CAMP

San Jose.—Richard P. Florey, 58, and Clarence E. Phillips, 32, both living in San Jose, were drowned when their automobile missed an approach to the Schallenberger bridge two miles north of here and plunged into Coyote creek, pinning the occupants beneath.

TOLD BY THE FINGERS

The ambitious person has long fingers.

The amiable, easy-going person has short fingers.

Large fingers mean slow intellectuality and common tastes.

Thumbs that curve downward show shrewdness and miserliness.

If his fingers are fat, he's lazy. The same applies to his fiancée.

Markedly pointed fingers indicate religious fervor and imagination.

Small, thin fingers bespeak a clever, acute mind, somewhat given to deceit.

A coarse, brutal nature is disclosed by fingers as large as the tips as at the roots.

Lean fingers indicate simple tastes, perhaps leaning too much toward penuriousness.

The strength of your will power is measured by the length of the upper joint of the thumb.

Thumbs that are coarse, heavy, and undeveloped belong to rude and ignorant persons.

If your fiancée has square fingers you may count on his being firm in his opinions, reasonable, and quite an orderly person.

MEMS FOR THE MARRIED

An antipodean student of woman in the marriage relation comes to some entertaining though perhaps not entirely justified conclusions. Here are a few of them:

The wise woman knows how to be foolish when her husband wishes to be clever.

Every woman longs for a romance, but most have to be content with husbands.

Selfishness is a quality in husbands which prevents wives from getting all they want.

The wise man doesn't attempt to understand women; he merely tries to get along with them.

A woman is only what men have made her. This applies particularly to selfish women.

The happiness of a married couple doesn't depend on their loving each other, but on their not loving anyone else.

Every one knows how wonderful a woman can look, but it is only the husband who knows how wonderful it is that she can look so wonderful.—Boston Transcript.

SAYINGS ILLUSTRATED

"I stick to business, by gum!" the postage stamp proudly boasted.

BIG CONTEST!

WITH CASH PRIZES FOR CHILDREN

First Prize $25.00

Second Prize 15.00

Third Prize 10.00

Ten Consolation Prizes of $1.00 Each

Parents with bright children -- children with bright parents -- read all about the contest, all about the rules and the fun and the prizes planned by the Campbell Branch of the Mercantile Trust Company for the grammar school pupils of Campbell and Cambrian.

WHAT TO DO

Build as many words as possible from the letters in the name "MERCANTILE". Get more words than anybody else and win the $25.00; or be second and take the $15.00; or at least be third and receive the $10.00.

BUT FIRST READ THE RULES

1. Any grammar school pupil of Campbell or Cambrian may take part who has a savings account of $1.00 or more with our bank.
2. Names of the contestants must be given to the Contest Manager, Miss Anna Hagelin, before Washington's Birthday.
3. Words built from "Mercantile" must be common words found in Webster's Standard Dictionary.
4. Use any letters in "Mercantile" as many times as they occur in our name, but that is all. For instance, you may use can; but not canner, for we have only one (n).
5. To make it easy for our judges to be sure your words are really in the dictionary, list words alphabetically, according as they begin with A, C, E, I, L, M, N, R, or T.
6. Completed lists will be numbered as received by the Contest Manager, and ties, if there are any, will be decided accordingly.

THEY ARE OFF

Announcement has been made at the schools, and the children are already scratching away with their pencils. Parents and friends may help the pupils. Everybody is in it -- it's a friendly community race. Loads of fun. All have from now until March 1. More news next week.

You're a Good Biscuit Baker?

Yes. Still, one can't always be baking biscuit. FAULTLESS PAN BISCUITS are wonderfully convenient. Warm them, that's all, before serving.

"I Won't Buy Any Butter But Isleton," says a patron. Well, we don't sell any butter but Isleton; so it is agreed that Isleton satisfies.

CAMP FIRE SLICED BACON

Never, never, never let this bacon scorch in the frying process. Stand right over it. Turn it often, until it is nicely browned. A crisp, sweet, appetizing platter of bacon will be your reward.

GLOSSY BLACK MISSION OLIVES (in bulk)

Looks are half the battle, in the case of olives. The other half is that flavor that can't be described. It simply "gets" you.

DE LUXE ASSORTMENT OF CAKES

Twelve kinds of the National Company's best, in one package—a full pound. They are fresh. They are attractive. Family or guests will find them a delight.

PHILLIPS WAFFLE AND PANCAKE FLOUR

This is one of the newest sorts. Mix with milk. Fry to a golden brown. The cakes are very good.

The Guild of the Congregational church reports $131.00 as the net earnings of the Improvement Club supper, which was made possible by the generous donations of food. The money will be applied on the bill of expense for remodeling and modernizing the kitchen of the church, which the ladies agreed to underwrite.

The soliciting committee for the Library Fund has been working busily this week to bring the quota up to the $10,000 mark, and is meeting with better success among the wholesale merchants of San Jose than had been accorded them by several retailers. Mrs. Alison reported at the banquet Friday night that the goal was well in sight and they were going to attain it, so there will undoubtedly be a complete report soon.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. held its regular meeting with Mrs. C. E. Case, Wednesday, January 24.

Mrs. Deborah Knox Livingston, National W. C. T. U. Director of Christian Citizenship, will speak in San Jose on the evening of February 8th. She is one of the most sought for speakers in the National, and her subject is timely and will be well presented.

A treat is promised the people of Campbell, when Mrs. Anna Marden De Yo comes to tell of the National and the World's W. C. T. U. conventions held in Philadelphia, last November. Mrs. De Yo has a charming personality and is a clear and forceful speaker. This will be a splendid opportunity to learn just what is being done along temperance lines all over the world. This meeting will be held Sunday evening, February 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whitman and Mrs. Edith Davis and Miss Shirley have the sincere sympathy of the Union in their sad bereavement.

The Union withdrew the offer made to the Sixth grade for essay work. It apparently had not been taken up, and examinations and the work of moving into the new building were so close at hand that it seemed best to take this course.

SARATOGA PHARMACIST FACES DAMAGE ACTION

Alleging that R. E. Henkle, former Saratoga pharmacist, on August 14 of last year, gave him by mistake a bottle containing a solution of carbolic acid and other harmful ingredients when the plaintiff asked for citrate of magnesia, J. A. McCoy, a rancher, has filed suit against Henkle for damages to the extent of $5,639.45.

McCoy alleges in his complaint that on the date named in the complaint he went to Henkle's drug store and asked Henkle for a bottle of citrate of magnesia. By reason of alleged negligence and carelessness on the part of Henkle, the complaint sets forth, McCoy was given by mistake a bottle containing carbolic acid and other harmful ingredients, which bore no label.

McCoy says he drank the contents of the bottle and climbed into his machine. In a few moments he became violently ill, fell unconscious, and lost control of his machine, which crashed into an electric power pole near Saratoga, causing him great bodily injury and heavy damage to the car, according to his complaint. As a result of the injuries received, which were due to Henkle's alleged error, McCoy has been unable to attend to his duties as a rancher and has been obliged to walk with the aid of a cane ever since the accident.

NEWSPAPER MEN TO CONFER MASONIC DEGREE

Friendship Lodge, F. & A. M., of San Jose will have a somewhat unusual meeting on February 15th when the third degree will be conferred upon a candidate from the field of newspaperdom. The candidate will be raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason by the degree team of the Oakland Tribune, which team will make the trip to San Jose especially for this event. The Oakland Tribune has a complete degree team within its own office, and it has become somewhat the custom in Masonic lodges in the San Francisco Bay District to ask the Tribune team to raise candidates who are from the journalistic profession. This has been done once before in San Jose and the Tribune team has become well known in that city.

The team as it will perform the work at the coming meeting will be as follows:

$70,000 WORTH OF WINE IS SEIZED NEAR SARATOGA

Federal prohibition agents are reported to have seized 14,000 gallons of wine in two lots valued at more than $70,000 in raids in the Saratoga vicinity. Part of the wine, it is said, was found in storage at the P. C. Tourroy bonded winery, No. 170, and the rest of it at a place near by run by Emil Tourroy, a brother of the bonded warehouseman.

Prohibition agents assert that P. C. Tourroy, who operates under a government permit, sold wine to them illegally, and accordingly they took him into custody on a bootlegging charge. Emil Tourroy is accused of manufacturing wine without a permit, according to Y. L. Havill, assistant chief Federal prohibition enforcement agent for the San Francisco district.

STANDING shoulder to shoulder with public officials, doctors and nurses, thousands of American funeral directors are constantly safeguarding your health.

Their part in stamping out contagion and saving human life is one of their many almost unobserved, yet very definite, contributions to public safety and peace of mind, and to the higher modern standards of living.

Because they are prepared, you do not have to be. They have provided facilities equally accessible to all, adequate to every material and spiritual necessity, and thoughtfully designed with the sincerity and good taste befitting equipment which is intended to carry a message of love and esteem.

By their preparedness they have relieved the family and its friends of all perplexing responsibilities, and by the influence resulting from their own progress, they have brought about the abolishment of traditional funeral customs that did violence to the finer sensibilities.
